STUDENTS OF THE WEEK!

The student awards for this week go to Patricia Fox for great participation in sport and in Library, Cody Stevens and Joss Ingram for great participation in class, Natalie Wood-Bradley for excellent work experience, Jordin Free for fantastic effort in reading and writing and Hamish Talbot for great spelling in class. The Reading Award goes to Stacey Kibble. The Writing Award goes to Hannah Clarke and the Maths Awards go to Melissa Heir and Heath Mather. Mrs Cain’s Superstar for the week goes to Jacob Melville for his ongoing assistance around the school. The Environment Award for this week goes to Class Clarke for bringing in low waste lunches. Congratulations!!!

Parent Teacher Interviews
Thank you to the many parents/carers that have participated in parent/teacher interviews this week and those who will participate next week. These meetings provide an important opportunity for you to meet with your child's teacher to plan educational programs and discuss any concerns.

Music Therapy
Music therapy has started back this term. Unfortunately Lauren has had to leave us however we welcome Tony Smith as her replacement.

Half Day Public Holiday
Local public holidays declared after 31st December 2011 are now made under the Public Holidays Act by Ministerial order and published on the NSW Legislation website. The Albury Shire Council have declared a half day holiday on the 27th March from 12.00 midday for the Albury Gold Cup. Please make appropriate arrangements for the care of your children from 12 midday. Thank you.
